They are Thrown into Confusion and Run.

A Worse than Bull Run Stampede.

A Stand Made at Rappahannock Station.

A REDOUBT STORMED AND TAKEN.

Twelve Hundred Rebels Captured with the Bayonet.

Also. Four Batteries and Seven Stand of Colors.

Breat Bravery of the Fifth Wisconsin and Sixth Maine.

their Entire Line.

OVER 1.800 PRISONERS TAKEN.

The fellowing has been received:

PRINST DISPATCH.

Maj Ger. French advanced to Kelly's Ford, driving a his operations, four Colors is, three Lieut, Colonsis,

Gen. French captured over four hundred prisoners. CEO. G. MEADE,

Gen. French's column reached Keil; a Ford first in guerrillae were also arrested.

the afternoon, and a portion of the 3d Corps rapidly It was rumored to-day that between 12 and 2 o'clock

The Rebet works further back from the river were. then vigorously shelled, and the remainder of the forcey It appears from information received here of the most transparent from then vigorously shelled, and the remainder of the force; level to ward happalannee Station, whereather the command of Maj. Gen. Sedgwick, and the reported active was progresslag. The movements at this features well-conducted area our casualties are reported as edget, perkeps twenty wounded. No pontons were used the river is ing fordable. The lat Carps bevought the river is ing fordable. The lat Carps bevought when their progressland of the Rappahannock Station, they have been found any other or possess any qualification what was progresslag. The movements at this social the river well-conducted area our casualties are reported as edget, perkeps twenty wounded. No pontons were used to rive is in growing the left wing, under the passage of the arms, The lat 2d and al Army corp forming the left wing, ander the command of Maj. Gen. French, proceed in this manner. The answers a regular to the fiving of the arms, The lat 2d and al Army corp forming the left wing, under the condition of the proceed in the shape of an election and the proceed in the manner. The answer is very simple the solid process, and redonists crowned the banks on each side of them, but it would only give these men more importance that they deserve. They would in some sense between the more interesting that the river, is the flar palamannock.

Gen. Sedgwick at once advanced and storated them the flar polar in the flar polar in the morning papers. To show you I do not misrepresent this side.

Mean while, Gen. Sedgwick's column approached to the command of the movements at this grow and the command of the movements at the command of the movements at the paper of the same transmitted upon any command of the ment of the m

Meanwhile, Gen. Sedgwick's column approached for Meanwhile, Gen. Sedgwick's column approached for the river, occupy in the morks creeted by our forces, and also intreached effect, not only killing a large anaber, but it is side. Gen. French hastily took a position, so as to bring his actility to boar upon them, and proceeded to shell them with marked effect, not only killing a large anaber, but it is contact which they had recently thrown up for defensive purposes. As the column approached a heavy artillery fine was opened from the Bebel batteries, which were silver the ist division of the id-dorse the several plantage and hidden the country less than a contact which they had recently thrown and hidden the feelest facts to cally killing a large anaber, but throwing them into after confusion, scattering them with marked effect, not only killing a large anaber, but with marked effect, not only killing a large anaber, but with marked effect, not only killing a large anaber, but with marked effect, not only killing a large anaber, but with marked effect, not only killing a large anaber, but with marked effect, not only killing a large anaber, but with marked effect, not only killing a large anaber, but with marked effect, not only killing a large anaber, but with marked effect, not only killing a large anaber, but with marked effect, not only killing a large anaber, but the most analy killing a large anaber, but with marked effect, not only killing a large anaber, but the most analy killing a large anaber, but the most analy killing a large anaber, but the most analy killing a large anaber, but the satisfact of the declard spen and parried the redoubt, hayoneting the rites by our infantry.

Letter their efforts to support the spen and parried and many were letter gate. Our less here was very secret, and the applicant the liceal had on this side was can-

New-York

RESERVED DATES TRANSPORT VACABLE VALUE PROPERTY OF THE

Vol. XXIII....No. 7,051.

NEW-YORK, MONDAY, NOVEMBER 9, 1863.

worst description, having been principally inflicted treating foe,

The troops were exposed to a terrible fire from butteries on both sides of the river, but behaved with the for that number. The prisoners are composed princigreatest gallantry. The charge upon the Rebel works pally of North Carolina and Louisiana troops. is spoken of as a most brilliant achievement, and the This afternoon the 3 o'clock train commenced bring terrible loss of officers bears evidence of its desperate ing the prisoners into Alexandria,

Among the prisoners are reported a brigadier-genmissioned officers. The total number of prisoners is the Virginia side—and they were guarded by cavalry to General Sedgwick's troops left Warrenton yesterday morning, and after a march of eleven miles came upon. Our total loss is reported to be 400 in killed and Rebels Falling Back Along perate fight, but were obliged to yield to the impetuous Alexandria this afternoon. attacks of our troops, and the whole number were cap-

Our Less Between 700 and 800. The 6th Maine went into the fight with 350 men, and numbering 400 men, their time having expired. She

LIST OF THE KILLED AND WOUNDED killed and wounded will be between 750 and 800. The Corlosses were incurred during the charge, in a space of rday morning. Two Corps, the 5th and 6th, The proprietor of the house where Gen. Pleasanton the propeletor of the house where Gen. Fleazanton to day loral.

The propeletor of the house where Gen. Fleazanton to day loral.

The propeletor of the house where Gen. Fleazanton to day loral.

The propeletor of the house where Gen. Fleazanton to day loral.

The propeletor of the house where Gen. Fleazanton to day loral.

In my last, I told you how the movements of these men leaked call—how they pretended that they had the countered and how they pretended that form was found buried in his yard, and other evidence that the classing the River.

Gen. French's column reached Kelly's Ford first in generalized to the countered to day loral.

The propeletor of the house where Gen. Fleazanton to day loral.

In my last, I told you how the movements of these men leaked call—how they pretended that have they had the countered and how that Gov. Shapley emphatically denied their arrested on the General's leaving. His guerrilla unitalized in his yard, and other evidence that they had how they pretended that have they pretended that have they pretended that they had the countered and how they pretended they had the countered and how they pretended that have they pretended their have all low they pretended the countered and how they pretended they had the countered and how they pretended they had the countered and how they pretended their having excited the support of Ger. Shapley and then they had they had the countered and how they pretended their having excited the support of Ger. Shapley and then they had they had the countered had how that Gov. Shapley emphatically denied their arrested on the General's leaving. His guerrilla unitality and how that Gov. Shapley emphatically denied their arrested on the General's leaving. His guerrilla unitality and how that Gov. Shapley and ten. Hanks, and how that Gov. Shapley emphatically denied their naveled to the whole they had head they had the countered to develop the prediction of the figure and the countered had the countered had the countered had the countered had the countered

The entire number of prisoners taken by both Sedgwere sent to Col. Devereaux at Alexandria to provide ar

The number taken by Sedgwick was from 1,200 to 1,400. The remainder were taken by French. eral, four colonels, four lieutenant-colonels, and 121 com-was a novel sight to see all Sedgwick's prisoners in a crowd—the largest lot ever captured by our forces on prevent straggling or escape.

French's prisoners were also gathered in one body and wounded, but no prisoners. Our wounded were carried to Warrenton Junctie prised. Being strongly intrenched, they made a des. and tenderly cared for. From thence they were sent to

LATER FROM NEW-ORLEANS.

Arrival of the Daniel Webster.

The United States steam-transport Daniel Webster, Capt. Sherman, arrived at this port on Sunday morning from New-Orleans Oct. 29, Ship Island 30th, Volunteers, under command of Capt. Barbor, also brings a mail from the United States sloop-of-war

The 19th and 13th Army Corps are yet

There is no news from the expedition which , left with it, and I expect hourly to receive a leation from Natchez. Gen. Ransom reached

Gen. French's colamn reached Kelly's Ford first in the afternoon, and a portion of the 3d Corps rapidly crossed, effecting a partial surprise of the enemy. They were found occupying rifle pits and earthworks, and will a portion of our infactry were so posted on this age of the river as to prevent any retreat from their position another body of our troops made a sudden their position another body of our troops made a sudden their position another body of our troops made a sudden their position another body of our troops made a sudden their position another body of our troops made a sudden their position another body of our troops made a sudden their position another body of our troops made a sudden their position another body of our troops made a sudden their position another body of our troops made a sudden their position another body of our troops made a sudden their position another body of our troops made a sudden their position another body of our troops made a sudden their position and one belonging principally to the 2d North Carolina inflatity.

The Entitle of Sainraday.

The Echel works further back from the river were the position of the most transparent fronds that ever was already in the direction of Brandy our city papers the first printed line from the constant. Address to the Citheen of Lonisana, College and Citheen to never on Monday. Nov. 2, and elect Monday anothing, the 28th, there appeared in our city papers the first printed line from the constant. Address to the Citheen sof Lonisana. College and the first printed line from the constant, and 2 or long and 2 or long thirteen commissioned officers being reported killed from the Maine regiment alone. The other troops advancing, the Rebels were driven from their position, and their entire force on this side the river, numbering over 1,200, captured.

Four batteries and seven stand of colors were also taken.

Following up his success, Gen. Sedgwick drove the Rebels from their position across the Rappahannock, capturing their pontoon train. Our losses here were very heavy, and will probably be between 600 and 700 willed and wounded. The wounds are said to be of the worst description, having been principally inflicted.

Tured, It is reported to be seven guns. Their whole camp equipage undoubtedly fell into our hands, as they there whole the first their hands, as they were compelled to leave it in their hands, as they were compelled to leave it in their hands, as they were compelled to leave it in their hands, as they were compelled to leave it in their hands, as they were compelled to leave it in their hands, as they were compelled to leave it in their hands, as they were compelled to leave it in their hands, as they were compelled to leave it in their hands, as they were compelled to leave it in their hands, as they were compelled to leave it in their hands, as they were compelled to leave it in their hands, as they were compelled to leave it in their hands, as they were compelled to leave it in their hands, as they were compelled to leave it in their hands, as they were compelled to leave it in their hands, as they were compelled to leave it in their hands, as they were compelled to leave it in their hands, as they were compelled to leave it in their hands, as they were compelled to leave it in their hands, as they were on mentant the full distinct of the full distinct on the full distinct on the full distinct of the full distinct on the full distinct of the full distinct on the full distinct of the full distinct on the full distinct on the ful about 100 discharged and furloughed soldiers from Gev.

PRICE THREE CENTS.

Hanks's army.

Camo. Bl., Saturday, Nov. 7, 1863.

That which was once Sunter, presented to on present.

That which was once Sunter, presented to on present.

The inclosing referred to by you, viz. 1st. Address to the people of Louisiana, 2d. 4 copy of rules and regulations adopted by you for the condent of the referred to the condent of the referred to the condent of the referred to the referred to the condent of the referred to the referre be could it be carried out.

We book upon the result of such an attempt as a more nullity, producing no legal effect.

Our cooperation in year metement, which we refuse, could be under an and has on board an nuusually valuable cargo.

THE SIEGE OF CHARLESTON.

DETAILS OF THE BOMBARDMENT.

TERRIBLE EFFECTS OF OUR FIRE.

The Work Gradually Wearing Away.

HOPELESS NATURE OF THE REBEL DEFENSE.

The advices per steamship Fulton, arrived at his port on Saturday, from Port Royal the 4th inst., de not confirm the report brought to Philadelphia by the steamer Salvor, which left Morris Island the 2d inst.

that Fort Sumter had been carried by assault. The steamer Thorn, Capt. Morgan, from Stone Jules the 4th inst., in ballast to the Navy Agent, also arrived at this port on Sunday. Passed Charleston on the 4th inst., at 5 p. m. There was heavy firing from Mouris Island and two monitors, mostly directed toward Fort Sumter. On the 5th inst., 40 miles north-east of Frying Pan Shoals, was boarded by the United States gunbeat Houque, who reported having chased the day before, in company with the United States steamer Keystere State, a blockade-runner, trying to get into Wilmington. She was struck by two shots from the Houque, The Keystone State was still in chase after her.

[This steamer is probably the Margeret I. Jessie, cap ured by the Fulton.)

The Richmond papers of the 6th inst. contain the following dispatches:
CHARLESTON, S. C., Nov. 4, 1863.—The bombardment of Fort Sumter continues furiously. It was bept up all last night, and is still going on this morning. President Davis has visited James Island, Ferts

Pemberton and Johnson, and all the batteries along the CHARLESTON, Nov. 5, 1863 .- There is slow firing to day from the enemy's monitors and their land better les. Five hundred and eighty-seven shots have been fixed in the last twenty-four hours. No essentities on our side. Another fron-clad joined the fleet to-day. The Ironsides still remains quiet. Three monitors are taking in Picture of the Scene-Terrible Effects son-Utter Hopelessness of the Defense A Lady in Fort Wagner-The Enfanc Perdus-Rennming the Ports-Effect of the Recent Flood Tides-Obstructions of the Harbor Washed Away. MORRIS ISLAND, S. C., Oct. 31, 1803 As a model of ruin lapsing into chaos, Fort Sumter is perfect. For any other purpose it is not inevitable destruction of any faction plotting against the Republic, as it will certainly adorn the most significant tale written upon the historic scroll of

The hospital steamer McDougal has arrived from New-Orleans 27th. Among the passengers is Sargeon General Hammond, en route to Washington; also about 100 discharged and furloughed soldiers from the manifest threshold the passengers is Sargeon General Hammond, en route to Washington; also of the Atlantic, below Hatter the manifest threshold the passengers is Sargeon General Hammond, en route to Washington; also of the Atlantic, below Hatter the manifest threshold the passengers is Sargeon General Hammond, en route to Washington; also of the Atlantic, below Hatter threshold the passengers is Sargeon General Hammond, en route to Washington; also of the Atlantic, below Hatter threshold the passengers is Sargeon General Hammond, en route to Washington; also of the Atlantic, below Hatter threshold the passengers is sargeon General Hammond, en route to Washington; also of the Atlantic, below Hatter threshold the passengers is sargeon General Hammond, en route to Washington; also of the Atlantic, below Hatter threshold the passengers is sargeon General Hammond, en route to Washington; also of the Atlantic, below Hatter threshold the passengers is sargeon General Hammond, en route to Washington; also of the Atlantic threshold thresh

we have the board in the long to present in the control of the con